Things to See

Stratonikeia – the City of Forbidden Love: When you are walking on Ottoman style rockery streets, you will see an antique city, which is famous with an eternal love, and you will be impressed with the magnificent structures constructed completely with white marble. And perhaps when you are resting under the shadow of a tree, you will understand why the gladiators, who had survived after all bloody fights, chose to live their retirements here.

Kelebekler Vadisi (Butterfly Valley) – A Unique Natural Beauty : Would you like to watch the sunset in Butterfly Valley, which is heavenly, after you reached by Ölü Deniz? It would be a unique experience for you to see jersey tiger (Euplagia quadripunctaria) in this valley, and to reach the waterfalls after taking a walk inside the valley. You will think that this valley possesses all exceptional beauties of nature.

Bodrum Castle, with the Secrets of Underwater : You would be lost within the unbelievable atmosphere of Bodrum with thousands years of past, when you are walking on the streets of whitewashed houses with blue reglets, which look like a postcard. After that you would see Bodrum Castle with its presumptuous stance over the sea. You can visit Bodrum Underwater Archeology Museum to discover the secrets of underwater or you can sit in the Bodrum antique theatre and watch this view, enchased by Bodrum castle in day and night. In Bodrum you will understand that you cannot see this vision anywhere in the world.

Kayaköy – Story of being abandoned : You would take a walk between the ruins of a rich commercial center of old times, in which Turks and Greeks were living together as mentioned in Evliya Çelebi's¹ Seyahatname. You will be a witness to the scary attraction of a haunted city of the dramatic story of being abandoned.

MUĞLA : The City of Sun

From Hittites to Caria, from Phrygia to Lydia, Muğla hosted many ancient civilizations. This is a city which blends natural beauties of houses, chimneys and streets naively to each other. In "Seyahatname" of Evliya Çelebi¹, Muğla is described as a fascinating city with its fertile lands, which are full of trees and fruits, and with its clean, educated and wise people. In every step you can feel that you are in a kind of open-air museum.

¹Evliya Çelebi was a Legendary Ottoman Turkish traveler, lived in 17th century.
